ST. MARY OF EGYPT

Mailing Address:

P.O. Box 4755

Palm Desert, CA.92261

Tel: (760) 568-9901

or: (760) 880-5869

— Fr. Theodore Pantels,

Proistamenos (Pastor)

— Deacon Euthym Kontaxis,
M.D.

Holy Communion Order

1. Please remain standing while following the directions of our ushers.
2. Ladies, kindly remove lipstick before receiving.
3. When receiving Holy Communion, make the Sign of the Cross, state your name (baptismal name), and naturally receive as if being fed.
4. Non-Orthodox Christians may not receive Holy Communion, but they may receive the Holy Bread at the end of the service.
5. All Orthodox Christians must be spiritually prepared to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion. Please see the priest if you have any questions.

WALKING ON AIR

There is a woman in all of human history who stood on air at the moment of her prayer. Her name is St. Mary of Egypt.

Her whole life is an living expression of the word said by St. Paul, which we heard during today's Epistle reading: "[All the more] the blood of Christ, Who through the Eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, will purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God." (Hebrews 9:14).

That St. Paul's words are Divinely inspired is verified by the Most Holy Mother of God Herself. She guided St. Mary of Egypt to repentance and Eternal Life. As much as we know about St. Mary of Egypt, we can understand that it is, in reality, the stark truth that Christ is the True God and that all of the false gods of the world then and now are idols who do not save humanity, but can truly harm us.

The basic theme of our worship today

ST. MARY OF EGYPT - Over a cup of coffee, one might want to read the story of St. Mary of Egypt, a copy of which is available for free in our parish book store (15 copies...if needed, see Fr. Ted for your own copy). For those with email, her story is attached in the email with today's Ladder (along with "21 Interesting Facts About St. Mary of Egypt", by John Sanidopoulos). Her story comes to us via St. Sophronios, the Patriarch of Jerusalem from 634-648 A.D., which, in turn had been given to him by a priest-monk named Zosimos.

The story itself is a narration of the encounter between Zosimos and St. Mary, which in total was brief, but which also involved even more brief exchanges over a few years.

As one takes a copy of her biography from our book store today, he or she will see where I have "titled" some sections of the story, writing: "Why Is St. Mary Remembered during Great Lent?"; "St. Mary Stands on Air!"; "St. Mary and the Sacrament of Holy Confession"; "St. Mary's Repentance", "St. Mary Partakes of Holy Communion", "St. Mary Departs this Life." Also, I have underlined and "foot-noted a few of my own observations.

The encounter of Zosima and St. Mary of Egypt is a vision of the Church encountering humanity and the ideal relationship between man and woman; priest and penitent; humanity and God. +FR. THEODORE Υπάρχει μια αγία γυναίκα σε όλην την ιστορίαν της ανθρωπότητος, η οποία εστάθηκε στον αέρα κατά την ωραν της προσευχής της. Το όνομα της είναι: η Αγία Μαρία της Αιγυπτου.

Η ολοκληρή ζωή της είναι ζωντανή εξήγησις του λόγου του Αποστόλου Παύλου, τον οποίον ακούσαμεν κατά την αναγνώσιν της σημερινής αποστολικής περιόπης: <Το αίμα του Χριστού, ως δια πνεύματος αιωνίου εαυτον προσηνεγκεν αμωμον τω Θεω, [θα] καθαρεί την συνειδήσιν υμών απο νεκρών έργων εις το λατρεύειν Θεω ζώντι>. (Εβρ. 9:14).

Ότι ο λόγος του Αγίου Παύλου είναι θεοπνευστος επιλαθευεται απο την Παναγίαν Θεοτοκόν. Η Αγία Θεοτοκος οδηγήσε την Αγίαν Μαρίαν της Αιγυπτου προς μετανοίαν και την αιώνιον ζωήν. Όσο γνωρίζουμεν το προσωπο της Αγίας Μαρίας, καταλαβαίνουμεν ότι είναι στην πραγματικότητα αληθείαν ότι ο Χριστός είναι ο Αληθινός Θεός, και οι ψευδο-θεοί του κόσμου τότε και τώρα είναι οι δαίμονες οι οποίοι δεν σώζουν την ανθρωπότητα, αλλά καταστρέφουν την ανθρωπότητα.

Το κυρίο θέμα της ημέρας είναι το θέμα της μετανοίας. Η μετανοία είναι <το ποτήριον> περι του οποίου ομίλησε ο Χριστός όταν ειπε: <Το ποτήριον ο εγω πινω, πιεσθε>. Η μετανοία περιλαμβάνει: το βάπτισμα, την εξομολογήσιν, την συμμετοχή στα Αχραντα Μυστήρια, και την προσευχήν <εξ όλης της ψυχής και εξ όλης της διανοίας ημών>, όπως τονίζουμεν κατά τις τελετές των ιερών ακολουθιών. Δια της μετανοίας ενώνεται ο άνθρωπος με τον Θεόν, όπως παρήρουμεν στο προσωπο της Αγίας Μαρίας της Αιγυπτου.
+Ο ΠΑΤΗΡ ΘΕΟΔΩΡΟΣ

is the theme of repentance. Repentance is the “cup” about which Christ spoke when He said, “The cup which I drink, you shall drink.” (St. Mark 10:39). Repentance includes the following: Holy Baptism; Holy Confession; participation in the Sacrament of Holy Communion – and prayer “with our whole heart and with our whole mind,” as is emphasized during the performance of our Orthodox Christian worship services. Through repentance, we are united to God, just as in the case of St. Mary of Egypt.

It makes sense, then, that when one approaches the priest for Holy Confession, the priest is not allowed to pass judgment on that individual. The whole point of Holy Confession is forgiveness from Christ God. It involves repentance, which is the turning away from the sins of the past and embracing the love of God in the present for Eternal Life. When the priest condemns the sinner, he nullifies the whole point of the Sacrament. Therefore, anyone’s fear of participating in this Sacrament based on “what the priest will think,” is a fear that is a trick of the devil.

When one reads the life of St. Mary of Egypt (attached in the email version of today’s Ladder – and available at our book store today and by request), one sees the dynamic of Holy Confession played out as it is dogmatically to be practiced by all the faithful. We are all encouraged to participate in this blessed Sacrament properly.

Read the St. Mary’s confession of her sins. Note Abbot Zosima’s reaction (or non-reaction) to what he has heard. Let us mark clearly in our minds the outcome: St. Mary repented, confessed her sins, and partook of Holy Communion from her priest.

As we begin to draw to the very edge of Holy Week, let us correct our errant ways of thinking, which make up our often jaded personalities, and let us correct our mentality as we put into ourselves the personality of God, renewing our baptism in Christ by fervent prayer and genuine repentance after the example of St. Mary of Egypt.

HYMNS FOR THE ENTRANCE WITH THE HOLY GOSPEL:

ANTIPHON III— Let heaven and earth praise Him, the seas and everything that moves in them.

Sunday Resurrection Hymn: Ton synanarchon Logon [Tone 5]... (Let us, the faithful, praise and worship the Word, coeternal with the Father and the Spirit, Who for our salvation was born of a Virgin for He willed to be lifted up bodily upon the Cross, to endure death and to raise the dead by His glorious Resurrection.)

Hymn for St. Mary of Egypt: En si miter akrivoshs... (In you, O Mother, is preserved undistorted what was made in the image of God; for taking up the cross, you followed Christ and by example taught, that we should overlook the flesh, since it passes away, and instead look after the soul, since it is immortal. And therefore, O devout Mary, your spirit rejoices with the angels.)

Hymn for St. George: Os ton ehmaloton eleftherotis... ("As the one who sets the captives free and the protector of the poor; as physician to the sick and the champion defender of kings, bearer of trophies are you, O Great Martyr George, intercede with Christ our God that He may save our souls.")

Kontakion Hymn for this Sunday: Prostasia ton Christianon... (A Protection of Christians unshamable; mediation with the Creator immovable. We sinners beg You: do not despise the voices of our prayers, but anticipate, since You are good, and swiftly come unto our aid as we cry out to You with faith: Hurry to intercession; and hasten to supplication, O Theotokos, Who defends at all times those who honor You.)

READINGS: Epistle – Hebrews 9: 11-14 / Gospel – St. Mark 10: 32-45

Follow the Liturgy of St. Basil the Great. After the Great Entrance, turn to pg. 125 in our Liturgy books. After the prayer on pg. 125, turn back to pg. 38. After the Creed, turn to pg. 126 for the continuation of the Liturgy of St. Basil. The Lord's Prayer & Communion Prayers: pgs. 60-74.

Communion Hymn: Enite ton Kyrion... (pg. 64 in our Divine Liturgy books)

"Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the well-spring of life"

Proverbs 4:23

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR SUNDAY, APRIL 17, 2016, continued

DESERT LANDSCAPE UPDATE— The desert landscape conversion project continues throughout this week and will be completed prior to Holy Week. Please consider a donation during our Lenten season to help the church offset the $15,000 expense of this project. We are most grateful to those who have already begun to make their contributions toward our Landscaping Project. Donations of any amount, small or large, is a blessing for our community. Thank you.

NATIONAL CHURCH DEVELOPMENT SURVEY— This Sunday, we will be handing out the National Church Development survey to 29 "lucky" parishioners who were selected at random to complete. The survey is based on a random sample. If you recall, we had previously mentioned our church would participate in this nationally recognized survey so that we could gain valuable information from our community in order to grow our parish. The surveys are totally anonymous (no one will know your survey responses) and the information will be tabulated by an outside company that will prepare a report for our church leadership and parishioners. It is very important that the survey is completed and turned in to the office by the deadline. The due date for return of the survey is April 26th. Thank you in advance for your participation. -Anna Prineas & Rhonda Latkovic

Stewardship

Thank you to all the parishioners who have supported the church, giving of their time, talent, and treasure so that as a parish we will continue to grow. Steve Franklin, Authentic Wisdom from America's Centenarians, asked a lovely Centenarian to what she attributed her longevity, and she replied, "Enjoy a long life by giving to others."

As of April 12th, 2016 we have 94 stewards pledging $ 83,574 and we have received $ 44,906. If you have not received a stewardship packet at home, please contact Rhonda Latkovic or Tina Veroulis in our church office at (760)568-9901 and a packet can be mailed to you or you may pick one up at the office.

Please note that to be considered a steward and appear in the list we print periodically in our newsletter(s), one must fill out a stewardship card (available in our church office).

The information from this card is entered in our system and an automated report is run at the end of each month to obtain an updated list. If you have given a donation to St. George without filling out a card, we are grateful for your contribution and you will receive a tax receipt at the end of the year for tax purposes, but your name will not appear on our monthly steward list. If, however, you sent in a stewardship card and your name does not appear on our list, we would appreciate your help in notifying us so. We either received or recorded your pledge after the report was run or an omission has occurred by accident, which we can correct. Thank you.
